ARTICLE 1

NAME

This Branch shall be known as “The Wasatch Branch,” Branch #111 of the National Association of Letter Carriers.

ARTICLE 2

OBJECT

Branch 111 will achieve solidarity through strength. Our strength will be the result of empowering our leaders and members through education, training and involvement. We recognize our obligations as we embrace the principles of integrity, open communication, and unity.

ARTICLE 3

MEMBERS

- Section 1. The dues of this branch shall be 1 hour per pay period at city letter carrier grade 2 step C, Carrier Technician rate. Any member not on dues check off shall maintain their dues (1) year in advance.
- Section 2. The dues for retirees shall be thirty-two ($32) dollars yearly plus any assessment by the State Association.
- Section 3. Any probationary employee that joins Branch 111 during their first ninety (90) days of employment, who fails to pass probation, shall upon request to Branch 111 be refunded any dues actually deducted from their paycheck.
- Section 4. An aggrieved member dissatisfied with the decision of the President or any other officer of the Branch may appeal in accordance with Article XI of the NALC Constitution.
- Section 5. Members of NALC Branch 111, who have maintained a continuous membership in any branch of the NALC for five (5) years, upon retirement from the United States Postal Service, shall be given a retirement watch and a retirement pin.

ARTICLE 4

OFFICERS

- Section 1. The Secretary shall cause to be published a notice of nomination and election. This issue shall be mailed not less than 45 days prior to the date of nominations. Such notice must state:
- A. The offices to be filled and length of term for each office.
 - B. Date, time, place, and method for submitting nominations.
 - C. Date, time, place, and method of election.
 - D. Which officers will be convention delegates by virtue of the office they hold.
- Section 2. Elected offices to be filled are: President, Executive Vice President, Vice President, Secretary, Secretary-Treasurer, Sergeant-at-Arms, Health Benefits Representative, MBA & Compensation Specialist, Safety and Health Representative, Director of Retirees and three (3) Trustees. The Trustees will choose the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees. Elected offices are for a term of three (3) years.
- Section 3. Nominations of officers shall take place at the October meeting every third year. All nominees must accept the nominations in person, by letter, or by proxy. The election by secret ballot shall be conducted prior to the December meeting.
- A. No member shall be eligible for nomination to hold more than one elected office at one time within the Branch.
 - B. Self-nomination is permissible.
 - C. No person shall accept nomination for more than one office.
 - D. Upon nomination, every nominee must certify that he or she has not served in, or applied for, a supervisory position for the twenty-four (24) months prior to being nominated.
- Section 4. Installation of officers shall take place prior to the January branch meeting. The exception being in case of a tie, the installation of Officers shall be after the run-off election.
- Section 5. The members of each Delivery Unit shall conduct a nominating election for Shop Steward within ten (10) days prior to the end of March every even year. The Recording Secretary shall cause to be posted at each delivery unit notice of such election not sooner than Jan. 1st and not less than forty-five (45) days prior to the nominating election. Each candidate for office of Shop Steward must comply with NALC National Constitution Article V, Section 2. The Branch President may appoint nominated stewards on April 1st for a term of two (2) years. Stewards may be removed from office for reasonable cause by the Branch President, e.g. gross negligence of duty, failure to regularly attend Branch meetings or steward meetings (e.g. less than 50%), or at the expressed request of at least 51% of members assigned to the steward's unit. A removed steward may appeal the removal to the Executive Board. The Executive Board will provide a recommendation to the Branch President. Should vacancies occur at any Delivery Unit for the office of Shop Steward, the President of the branch shall appoint a replacement in order to fill the vacancy.

- Section 6. All officers of Branch 111 shall fulfill the requirements of the Constitution for Subordinate and Federal Branches, and the Branch By-laws. The President shall be Chairperson of the Executive Board.
- Section 7. The Executive Vice President shall work in the Branch 111 Office two days each month during the normal operating hours of Branch 111. The Executive Vice President will take Branch 111 phone calls on Saturdays. The Executive Vice President will be responsible for ensuring that the grievance files are entered in the Branch 111 log and filed in their appropriate locations. The Executive Vice President will perform such other duties as may be assigned to him/her.
- Section 8. The Vice President is the Branch Director of Education. The Vice President will perform such other duties as may be assigned to him/her.
- Section 9. The Secretary shall also be the Secretary of the Executive Board and such other Committees as directed by the President.
- Section 10. The Board of Trustees shall keep a record of all Branch 111 property, and shall check this property and audit all books and financial records at least every six (6) months. The Trustees shall also be tellers when a vote count is taken.
- Section 11. The Secretary-Treasurer, in addition to his/her other duties, shall handle all taxes for the Branch. Before the Treasurer can issue a voucher for payment, he/she must be given an itemized statement of services rendered, purchases made, or incurred expenses. Two authorized bonded union officers must sign all checks and withdrawals from savings.
- Section 12. The Secretary and Secretary-Treasurer shall preserve all official papers for the period required by law.
- Section 13. All officers and shop stewards shall be bonded in accordance with the requirements of the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1959.
- Section 14. The Director of Retirees shall be a retired member of Branch 111.
- Section 15. The office hours of Branch 111 will be established and posted, National and State holidays exempted. If the President cannot be at the office during the designated hours, he/she will ensure that a telephone-recording device will be in place or he/she will designate (in this order) the Executive Vice President, Vice President, a bonded officer, or steward to take his/her place.
- Section 16. If any Branch office, except that of the President (Refer to Article 6 Section 2 of Subordinate and Federal Branches of the National Constitution), becomes vacant the Branch President will, within thirty (30) days and in accordance with applicable rules specified within the NALC Constitution, appoint a member in good standing to fill the vacancy until the end of the office's term. In the event that the office of President becomes vacant, the Executive Vice President shall succeed to the Presidency.
- Section 17. The Shop Steward shall represent the Branch and perform such other duties as may be assigned them.

Section 18. The Shop Steward may assign such duties to alternates as will further the welfare of the Branch. Alternate stewards must meet the same NALC Constitutional requirements as any shop steward.

Section 19. The Branch President shall appoint other officers as necessary.

ARTICLE 5

MEETINGS

Section 1. At the special or regular meeting thirty (30) members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 2. The number of members upon whose written request for a special meeting of this Branch shall be called shall be twenty-five (25) in good standing.

Section 3. The regular Branch meeting shall start promptly at 6:30 P.M. on the second (2nd) Thursday of each month.

Section 4. The Secretary shall post the minutes of the previous union meeting prior to the commencement of the current meeting for review.

Section 5. The Sergeant-at-Arms will monitor the recording of attendance, via a sign in sheet, and provide the completed list to the Recording Secretary. The Recording Secretary will keep on file for six years each roll record for future reference.

Section 6. It shall be the responsibility of each member to sign his/her name legibly to the aforementioned roll record as proof of his/her attendance.

Section 7. For the purposes of convention eligibility attendance shall mean physical attendance with the exception of N.A.L.C. or military duties. Members may be excused in cases of required USPS overtime extending beyond the scheduled start time of branch meeting. Such absences will require documentation prior to nomination of delegates.

Section 8. Branch 111, with prior approval of its membership, shall have the option of only meeting ten (10) times per year.

Section 9. Any member asking for expenditures of Branch funds in excess of one hundred ($100) dollars shall present to the Executive Board his/her proposal. The Executive Board will only make recommendations on requests. Proposals must be submitted at a regularly scheduled Executive Board meeting.

Section 10. There shall be four drawings for the amount of twenty-five ($25) dollars at the regular Branch meeting immediately after the adjournment of the Branch meeting.

Section 11. The Vice President will schedule a regular monthly Training Meeting. Up to two meetings per year may be cancelled. The Vice President or their designee will conduct this training.

ARTICLE 6

Executive Board

- Section 1. Board Composition. The Executive Board shall consist of all elected and appointed officers of Branch 111.
- Section 2. Elected officers of the Branch shall be voting members of the Executive Board, appointed officers of the Branch shall be non-voting members of the Executive Board. There must be a quorum of at least 5 voting members of the Executive Board present to vote on any issue.
- Section 3. The Executive Board shall meet every first Thursday of the month at 6:30 pm at the Branch office.
- Section 4. Special Executive Board meetings can be called by the Branch President or 5 members of the Executive Board in writing and presented to the Branch Secretary. Executive Board meetings may only be cancelled if they are in close proximity or during holidays, conventions or training sessions.
- Section 5. The Executive Board shall have general supervision of the affairs of the Branch. The Board shall be subject to the orders of the Body. The Executive Board shall take no action committing or binding the Branch to a definite policy or pledging its funds or property without first submitting the same to the Branch for consideration, except in an urgent situation.

ARTICLE 7

COMMITTEES

- Section 1. Election Committee.
- A. The President shall appoint an Election Committee of 9 members and three alternates. These appointments will be made after the nominations and at least 21 days before the election. This committee shall be composed of non-candidates; one member shall be appointed Chairperson. The President will instruct the Election Committee of its duties and responsibilities at the time of appointment.
- B. The Election Committee shall adhere strictly to Federal Labor Election Law; comply with provisions of the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1959, the N.A.L.C. Constitution and to the guidelines contained in the publication "NALC REGULATIONS GOVERNING BRANCH ELECTION PROCEDURES."
- C. All members of the Election Committee, candidates, and observers must have available a copy of U.S. Department of Labor Office of Labor - Management Standards publication entitled, "ELECTING UNION OFFICERS" and a copy of "NALC REGULATIONS GOVERNING BRANCH ELECTION PROCEDURES."

- D. Balloting in Branch 111 shall be conducted by mail as described in “NALC REGULATIONS GOVERNING BRANCH ELECTION PROCEDURES.”
- E. The issue of the branch newsletter immediately prior to a scheduled branch election will be mailed no less than 10 days prior to the mailing of election ballots. All candidates may submit a biographical sketch, no more than one (1) page, at no cost to the candidate.
- F. The Election Committee must receive all ballots no later than 5:00 P.M. on a date to be determined by the Election Committee, not more than 5 days prior to the December branch meeting. The cut off date shall be printed on the ballot. Tallying of ballots will begin immediately thereafter. There shall be no alcohol consumed on the premises during the counting of the ballots. All improperly marked ballots shall be handled according to Section 17 of the Regulations Governing Branch Election Procedures (RGBEP).
- G. The newly elected officers shall be announced at the December meeting by the Election committee chairperson. The results of the election shall also be published in the branch newsletter and posted on the branch web page.
- H. In the case of a tie, a notice will be sent by mail no later than fifteen (15) days prior to the January branch meeting announcing a run-off election to be conducted at said meeting. For such run-off election, polls will be open from 4:00 PM to 8:00 PM, on the night of the January branch meeting. If a tie still exists a flip of the coin will decide the winner.
- I. Appeals of an election will be conducted according to “NALC Regulations Governing Branch Election Procedures” and Article XI Section 4 of the National Constitution.

Section 2. Official Delegations:

- A. The elections of delegates and alternates to a National Convention shall take place on odd numbered years at the regular October meeting. The nominations of those delegates shall be made at the last regular meeting held prior to that meeting. Notice of nomination and election shall be made at least forty-five (45) days prior to the date of nomination.
- B. The elections of delegates and alternates to a Utah State Association of Letter Carriers Convention shall take place on even numbered years at the regular October meeting. The nominations of those delegates shall be made at the last regular meeting held prior to that October meeting. Notice of nomination and election shall be posted in the Pavement Pounder and on the Branch web page at least forty-five (45) days prior to the date of nomination.
- C. The nominations of delegates and alternates to the Utah AFL - CIO Convention shall be made at the April meeting of the year of the Utah AFL - CIO Convention, and elections to take place at the May meeting. Notice of nomination and election shall be posted at least forty five (45) days prior to the date of nomination.

Section 3. The Branch President is an automatic delegate to all National, State and AFL-CIO conventions. In the event that the President cannot attend the Executive Vice President shall be the automatic delegate. In the event that the President and Executive Vice President cannot attend, the Vice President shall be the automatic delegate.

- Section 4. The Branch President shall determine Branch representatives to training and seminars.
- Section 5. This Branch shall elect a full delegation and an equal number of alternates to all National and State Conventions.
- A. The Executive Board will recommend, and the Branch will determine the Budget for convention. Each qualifying delegate will receive an equal portion of the budgetary amount. Any qualified delegates who chose not to attend the convention will notify the Branch President prior to applicable deadlines. Funds for delegates choosing not to attend will revert to the attending delegates.
 - B. Convention delegates and training seminar attendees shall receive funds, prior to departure to the event, from the branch. Adjustments for lodging may be made by the Branch President for delegates sharing a room. These expenses shall not exceed IRS allowances.
 - C. Convention delegates and training seminar attendees who choose to provide their own lodging and/or transportation will receive funds equal to those provided by the branch.
 - D. Any losses incurred by the Branch due to a member's cancellation of travel plans shall be made good by that member.
- Section 6. No delegate or alternate elected to any National, State, or AFL-CIO Convention shall receive any convention expenses from this Branch unless his/her regular Union Dues and assessments have been paid in full, as provided for in Article 3 Section 1 of the By-Laws and in accordance with Article V, Section 2 of the National Constitution.
- A. Be it further provided that no elected delegate or alternate elected to represent this Branch at a National Convention shall receive any expense monies from this Branch unless he/she shall have physically attended at least eight (8) meetings annually, held from April of Convention year to and including March of the next Convention year. Official N.A.L.C. or military duties will excuse the necessity for physical attendance. Members may be excused in cases of required USPS overtime extending beyond the scheduled start time of branch meeting. Such absences will require documentation prior to nomination of delegates.
 1. If a member enters the Postal Service following the April of Convention year, to receive monies he/she must be a member of Branch 111, NALC one (1) year and have attended two thirds (2/3) of the union meetings including March of the next Convention year.
 2. Members of newly merged branches must attend two thirds (2/3) of Branch meetings from date of merger to the date of the convention.
 - B. No elected delegate to Utah State NALC or Utah AFL-CIO conventions shall receive expense allowances unless he/she will have physically attended at least six (6) regular branch meetings annually, held from April of Convention year to and including March of the next Convention year. Members with less than one full year with the Postal Service (including merged branches) must attend sixty percent (60%) of regular branch meetings from their anniversary date to receive expense allowances. Official N.A.L.C. or military duties will excuse the necessity for physical attendance. Members may be excused in cases of required USPS overtime extending beyond the scheduled start time of branch meeting. Such absences will require documentation prior to nomination of delegates.

- Section 7. The Membership Committee shall consist of the Branch Executive Vice President as Chairperson and all Shop Stewards as members. They shall perform the duties outlined in the Constitution for the government of Subordinate Branches, together with such other duties as may be referred to them by the Branch.
- Section 8. The President shall appoint a Sick and Memorial Committee. The Director of Retirees shall serve as Chairman of this committee, The Committee may make expressions of sympathy or memoriam to families of gravely ill or deceased members, at a reasonable cost.
- Section 9. Such other committees, standing or special, shall be appointed by the President as deemed necessary to carry on the work of the branch.
- Section 10. President's Ex-Officio Committee Membership. The President shall be Ex-Officio a member of all committees except the Election Committee

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the Branch in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the National Constitution, these bylaws, and any special rules of order the Branch may adopt.

ARTICLE 10

AMMENDMENTS

- Section 1. Changes to Branch By-Laws must be made by a motion at a regular Branch meeting. Notice of such changes must be written in the Pavement Pounder, which must be mailed at least 14 days prior to the next meeting, at which time voting will take place. Changes to branch bylaws must be submitted in writing to the Branch Secretary at least one month prior to the meeting in which they are submitted.
- Section 2. A defeated amendment shall not be submitted in like or similar form for six (6) months thereafter.
- Section 3. Dues may be increased by majority vote by secret ballot of members present and voting at a Branch meeting following the compliance of Article 10, Section 1 of these by-laws.
- Section 4. All members of Branch 111 will be issued a copy of the Constitution and By-Laws of this Branch upon their request.

STANDING ORDERS ADOPTED BY BRANCH 111

Union Meeting End Time is 8:30pm

Standing Order Adopted April 11, 2019

Adopt a standing rule that we set the time to adjourn for all regular branch meetings at 8:30pm. A motion made by any member and adopted by a majority vote of the body will suffice to extend the meeting.

Handling Dues in Arrears Issues

Standing Order Adopted January 10, 2019

Effective 1/1/2019 - The first 5 Pay Periods without dues being deducted in each calendar year will be forgiven if there are no more than 5 Pay Periods with no dues payments made in the year.

If there are more than 5 Pay Periods in a year without dues deductions, members will be expected to pay all costs incurred by the branch for all pay periods where dues were not deducted during the year. This amount shall be equal to the National and State dues that the branch has to pay each Pay Period (approximately $10 per pay period).

Once arrears reach more than 5 Pay Periods in the calendar year a notice will be sent documenting the amounts paid and the amounts that are due. Failure to pay dues that are in arrears within 6 months of such notice shall result in the termination of membership. Arrangements for payments will be considered to have met this requirement. The minimum monthly payment will be $20.

Also, forgive all dues in arrears from 1/1/2016 to 12/30/2018 and reimburse those that have paid during that period.

Vetting Advertisers

Standing Order Adopted November 8, 2018

Any company that comes in and wants to advertise with us, who wants access to our membership dealing with Federal programs (Workman's Compensation, retirement, health benefits, etc.) must first be vetted by National. Local banks, restaurants, etc. would not be included.

Retiree Watches

Standing Order Adopted October 13, 2016

Retirees are not required to come to the union meeting to receive their watch. Branch 111 will provide a watch to new retirees per the bylaws upon request (by the retiree or anyone on their behalf).

Union Meeting to Adjourn by 8:30pm

Standing Order Adopted April 11, 2019

The time set to adjourn for all regular branch meetings is 8:30pm. A motion made by any member and adopted by a majority vote of the body will suffice to extend the meeting.

Military Dues to be forgiven

Standing Order Adopted March 9, 2017

When a member's dues cannot be deducted because that member did not earn a check due to their serving in the military, the branch forgive the dues in arrears and not attempt to collect.

Monetary Grievance Settlement for Training

Standing Order Adopted May 13, 2021

Any monies received by branch 111, in the form of grievance settlements from the USPS, be earmarked for training. Money is not to be retroactively applied before 2021
